

MUSIC ZONE SUNDAY

11 am - 5 pm
Elks Hall, 1914 - 20 Street

1 pm - The Polyjesters

The Polyjesters are a self-proclaimed band of prairie pirates playing swing music of all flavours. Created by brothers Jason and Sheldon Valleau on a park bench in Holland, most recently, they performed at the Bell Grandstand Show during the 2023 Calgary Stampede, and were favourites at JubeFest just last month. You are in for a very special treat for sure!

Listen for our radio ads on 96.5 CKFM and Rock 104.5 and bring your family and friends to the Mountain View Arts Festival, September 7 & 8. Arts, culture, and heritage at the Didsbury Museum, Library, Elks Hall, and Train Station!

MUSIC ZONE SUNDAY

11 am - 5 pm

Elks Hall, 1914 - 20 Street

11 am - TopNoters

This is a fun group of adults who like to get together to play music! We currently have a Harmonica, Bagpipes, Brass, Reeds and Percussion. We meet alternating Fridays at Top Note Music School in Carstairs from 7 - 8:30 pm.

11:45 am - Camille The Violin Girl

CamLo has a huge following for her music on social media and at concerts and festivals in the area.

12:30 pm - Gordie Stuart

Gordie has a great following in town. He sang the national anthem for the figure skating carnival, and received a special prize for Best Religious Music at the Olds & District Music Festival this year.
